Regulation G and Forward-Looking Information

This presentation contains some non-GAAP financial measures with respect to Vanguard's performance. You can find the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures and the required reconciliation of those measures to GAAP measures under the SEC's Regulation G on our website, www.vanguardhealth.com, available by entering the Investor Relations section and then the SEC Filings page.

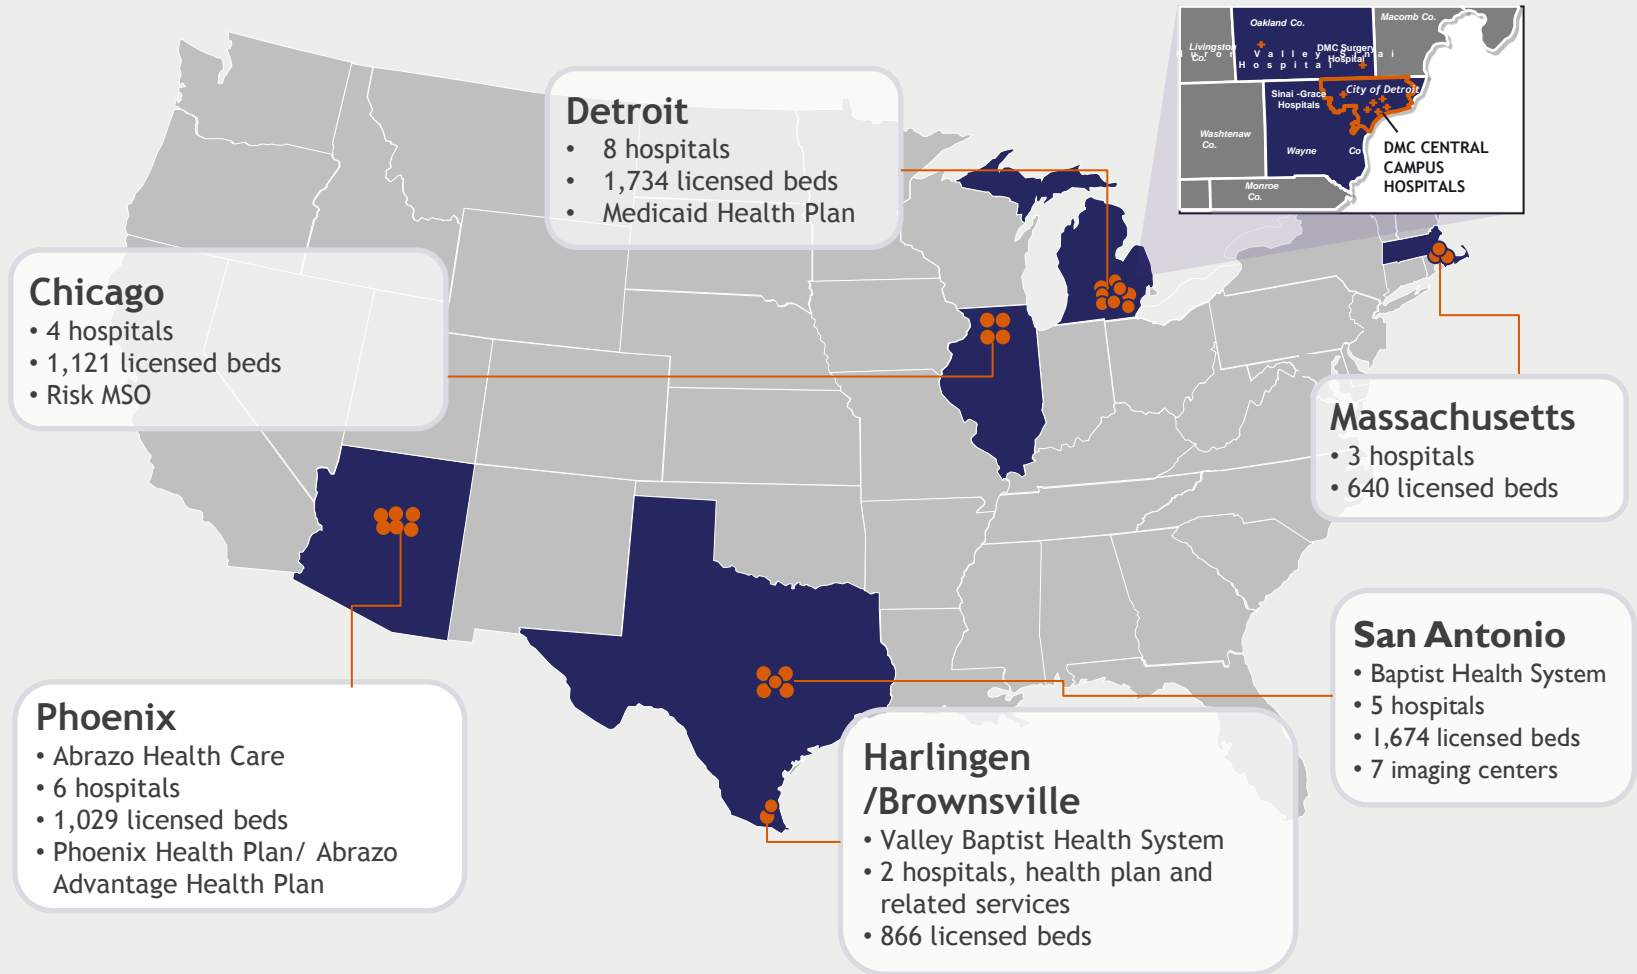

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, which are intended to be covered by the safe harbors created thereby. These forward-looking statements include all statements that are not historical statements of fact and those statements regarding the Company's intent, belief or expectations. Do not rely on any forward-looking statements as such statements are subject to numerous factors, risks and uncertainties that could cause the Company's actual outcomes, results, performance or achievements to be materially different from those projected. These factors, risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, Vanguard's high degree of leverage and interest rate risk; Vanguard's ability to incur substantially more debt; operating and financial restrictions in Vanguard's debt agreements; Vanguard's ability to generate cash necessary to service its debt; weakened economic conditions and volatile capital markets; potential liability related to disclosures of relationships between physicians and Vanguard's hospitals; post-payment claims reviews by governmental agencies that could result in additional costs to Vanguard; Vanguard's ability to grow its business and successfully implement its business strategies; Vanguard's ability to successfully integrate the acquisition of substantially all of the assets of The Detroit Medical Center and Valley Baptist Health System and future acquisitions or to recognize expected synergies from such acquisitions; potential acquisitions could be costly, unsuccessful or subject Vanguard to unexpected liabilities; conflicts of interest that may arise as a result of Vanguard's control by a small number of stockholders; the highly competitive nature of the healthcare industry; governmental regulation of the industry, including potential reductions to Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement levels in general and with respect to the impact of the Budget Control Act of 2011 and other future deficit reduction plans; a reduction or elimination of supplemental Medicare and Medicaid payments, including disproportionate share payments, indirect medical education/graduate medical education payments and other similar payments; pressures to contain costs by managed care organizations and other insurers and Vanguard's ability to negotiate acceptable terms with these third party payers; Vanguard's ability to attract and retain qualified management and healthcare professionals, including physicians and nurses; the currently unknown effect on Vanguard of the major federal healthcare reforms enacted by Congress in March 2010 or other potential additional federal or state healthcare reforms; potential adverse impact of known and unknown governmental investigations and audits; Vanguard's inability to adequately enhance its facilities with technologically advanced equipment; the availability of capital to fund Vanguard's corporate growth strategy and improvements to Vanguard's existing facilities; potential lawsuits or other claims asserted against Vanguard; Vanguard's ability to maintain or increase patient membership and control costs of its managed healthcare plans; failure of AHCCCS to renew its contract with, or award future contracts to, Phoenix Health Plan; Phoenix Health Plan's ability to comply with the terms of its contract with AHCCCS, as noncompliance could subject it to fines, penalties or termination of its contract; Vanguard's inability to accurately estimate and manage health plan claims expense within Vanguard's health plan; Vanguard's inability to accurately estimate and manage employee medical benefits expense within Vanguard's health plans; reductions in the enrollment of Vanguard's health plans; changes in general economic conditions nationally and regionally in the markets served by Vanguard; Vanguard's exposure to the increased amounts of and collection risks associated with uninsured accounts and the co-pay and deductible portions of insured accounts; dependence on Vanguard's senior management team and local management personnel; volatility of professional and general liability insurance for Vanguard and the physicians who practice at its hospitals and increases in the quantity and severity of professional liability claims; Vanguard's ability to achieve operating and financial targets and to maintain and increase patient volumes and control the costs of providing services, including salaries and benefits, supplies and other operating expenses; increased compliance costs from further government regulation of healthcare and Vanguard's failure to comply, or allegations of Vanguard's failure to comply, with applicable laws and regulations; the geographic concentration of Vanguard's operations; technological and pharmaceutical improvements that increase the cost of providing, or reduce the demand for, healthcare services and shift demand for inpatient services to outpatient settings; a failure of Vanguard's information systems; delays in receiving payments for services provided, especially from governmental payers; changes in revenue mix, including changes in Medicaid eligibility criteria and potential declines in the population covered under managed care agreements; costs and compliance risks associated with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002; material non-cash charges to earnings from impairment of goodwill associated with declines in the fair market values of Vanguard's reporting units; volatility of materials and labor costs for, or state efforts to regulate, potential construction projects that may be necessary for future growth; changes in accounting practices; Vanguard's ability to demonstrate meaningful use of certified electronic health record technology and to recognize revenues for the related Medicare or Medicaid incentive payments; and those factors, risks and uncertainties detailed in Vanguard's filings from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, among others, Vanguard's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q.
